FOR CHRIST'S SAKE,

It was quite an amoyance to a fashionable family in our church, that two old holies, who al to a very ancient mode of divery menpied the pew before them every sun lay. They were narrow black sill, dresses, wide collars, and old fashioned bounds. The children had drawn several curvetties of their redelities in F the lymn books. These thoughthes young people did not notice the sweet peace which illuminated the faces of the two old halies, while "worshipped the Lord in the branty of holiness."

When we were sont out on a collection tons for the missionary society, we presented the book very gladly lother tich hely who dessel so beautiful. She received as in an elegant drawing room, but a cloud dashowed her time on learning our createl. After making excuses about her want of faith in -neli far-oil missions, and her preference for home chapities and the times which limited her expenditure,

At an improved line little house was stanged.

At an improved line little house was stonged rather inwillingly. Here lived those shatby old ladies who looked so mitiguated it was almost useless to solica their aid. The reconwas plainly furnished with west worn morning and a home made carpet, there were no pictures on the walls, no books width, every an all family Bible, which looked as if it were always and, Pike 2 cod percept. For short that we start of the Figh subscription of the Figh subscription. was plainly furnished with well worn furniture. book, it was numerosury to mention our olg the younger sister went to some distant buyeau drawer, and brought back an old leather pairs. It was full of bright gold pieces. With a rediant face she gave ten shining eagles in our hands, saved by self denied and numberless recomming, by side of fruit and eggste for constant remembrance of the injunction, is Lay up for yourselves treasures in horsen." We had been disposed sometimes to laugh at the two fold ladies, but never again did we think of them without reverence and love.

"When we were preparing no sense a present a first and first land, fir economies, by sale of finit and eggs. So con-stant remembrance of the injunction, blay up-without reverence and love.

White wit were preparing to send a present to the hospital, a chain dispered at the door, and the two old habits appeared bearing a goodly store. The old chaine was filled with cups of jelly and bottles of current wine, with linear and warm blankets. They had brought emage to fill a generous hox. It was easy to see aby the dear old people wore the same dresses your after year, and carried such field parasols.

We heard of a very poor family, and went to ascertain what they especially needed; we had been anticipated by the same charitable hands. There was the willow busket, familiar in all the houses of our poor, which had beinglig bread and meat and cordial for the sick. With our two old ladies it seemed very true that fgiving does not impovered to their cross of oil was never emply.

Again we called at the old house is beg something for the soldier's tracts and bookstill one gold coin remained to send us on our way rejoicing. They were quilting in the kitchen; this must be designed for themselves: but they asked us to walk into the parior, and see a few articles they were about to send to a home missionary's family. For more month they had been sewing and knitting natil a table was covered with garments for Hermilanows

There was a secred bouses it reminded us of failed to find gold in the worn purse, food in the closet for the longry, wine and soop for the sick, whenever we applied to the women who were "poor, yet making many tich."

When jewels and costly dress will have lost their planting when the white robe of Christ's built and evoluted out; two old fusions planting will be the only one desired, our two old fusions fusioned fadies will find their gold and silver hostided for life's take, safe for them, and all their charifies, given so noiselessly that the left hand did not know what the right hand did not not all fine respectively. The Italian Minister of Finance in his report to the Point Marketing Property of the Point Marketing Propert The Rahan Minister of Finance in the report to the Chamber states that the deficit on the did of D.c. was 374,060. Evers, The Minister proposes that the Budget for 1862 shall be regulated by ex-traordinary credits to be opened by royal decrees. The Minister further demonstrates the possibility of establishing an equilibrium between the Ecv-enne and expenditure within four years by intend-or bonds to the school of the Covern lands by the al surprise for term long, felt, by the protession, and or a bon by the sale of the Crown lands, by the as a condition said of the covern many, by the conversion of a large nataber of martgages and estates, by an increase of the land tax, by the es-tablishment of a system of furnition on certain descriptions of movable property, by imposing city tolls, by the sale of the radiacy, by the first tection of a Bank for making advance upon the seon you counted in.
We would recommend you to appoint some of the reported Apolica ries in different parts of the Unis centry of Landed property, by the reorganization of the Banking system, and by a referm of the method of granting mortgages. The Minister states in the consistent that the government conted traffer to be more than the of your Bourbon Whis-ky, where the profession can obtain the same, when states in the concentration at the government con-siblered it moeseany to take advantage of the ex-isting political Bill to regulate the finances. The propositions of the Minister of Finances were fav-orably received by the Chamber. The debate up-nation of the manufacture of the gov't will con-lary months for the finance of the Chamber. The Thies radicules the lacal Mayor for bringing Mr. Mason into prominence at the Mandon House banquet, and shows that affair was without may significance. It says that Mason's remarks about the early recognition of the Confederates go far about of the real state affairs. Recognition is idical of the real crate affairs. Recognition is not a question of time of minority or underlay, but of real existing frosts. When the Federals find themselved obliged to leave the Confederates in after possession of their States, it will be time to discuss the question of recognition—but not until then. As it is, Mason loss received no assistance or encouragement, except from gerflemen, who, like the Lord Mayor, are under no responsibility to weigh their worls. An address of thanks, we, prepared by the Liverpool Clasmber of Commettee, was to be publicly presented to the Captain of the George Grisword in St. George Hall, on the 16th. S, regular evaluly at Pichan Farm, a point about five miles from this cillage and on the read to Hardwood Church. The circumstance attending the addit is get not fully reported. Enough is known to establish the opinion that it was the determination of General Smart to make his way to the Potomae Creek and sectors the extractive realized by this every which Simult to make his way to fine Potomae Creek and destroy the extensive railroad bridge over which the supplies of his struy are now conveyed in most part. In this ha was successfully folked and his retreat across the viver was accomplished just in time to save his force from destruction, instancely as the rain of last night has caused a rise in the stream rendering it inspessible to ford. In the sternish we lost several killed and wounded and some taken prisoners. We captured about 50 of the enemy, among them one Licotemant.

WASHINGTON RUMORS. New York, Feb. 28

New York, Feb. 28.
The Herald says that ransors were rife in Washington yesterday that Gen. Hanter was about to be relieved from the command of the department of the South and Gen. Burnside's name was spoken of in connection with the succession. It was also said that certain parties were preparing charges against Gen. McClellan with a view to a Ceart Martial. These reports were extensively talked of in the streets and places of public resort.
